

Step-By-Step Guide For Horsemen Shipping Into Remington Park

All registration and other formalities on arrival can be simplified if the following information is transmitted to the Racing Secretary and/or the Oklahoma Horse Racing Commission prior to your arrival. For up to date EHV1 Policy please call the office or go to the Horsemans section on the Remington Park website.

TO THE RACING SECRETARY:

- Register in the Racing Secretary's Office; the Jockey Club Certificate of Foal Registration papers and an original or certified lab copy of current negative Coggins results, which must show the correct and complete ownership. In Oklahoma a copy of a negative coggins will no longer suffice according to the state. It is illegal to run a horse in Oklahoma with a copy. The OHRC enforces this law. Preference dates are given according to the day the Jockey Club Certificate of Foal Registration is put on file.

TO THE STABLE OFFICE:

- Arrival time.
- Groom's accommodation.
- Trainer's local accommodations and telephone number.
- Any special requirements, such as special bedding.
- Lodge a full list of employees, including assistant trainers, exercise riders, grooms, hotwalkers and other personnel at the Stable Office.

TO THE OKLAHOMA HORSE RACING COMMISSION (OHRC):

- Completed License Application forms. May be obtained in advance from the OHRC.
- Owners, trainers, jockeys and all employees complete License Application procedures at the OHRC office.
- Partnerships, lease forms, authorized agent forms, stable name applications must be filed with the OHRC or Stewards offices at Remington Park.
- Submit copy of Worker's Compensation policy to the OHRC.

ON ARRIVAL:

- Colors and Silks should be registered with the Racing Office at the time of entry, and delivered to the Racing Office or Jockey room at least one hour before the race.
